Rules Review:

What constitutes a race? Two entries must be received from two different high schools

- It is recommended that an experienced coxswain be used in novice categories.
- No student shall row in more than two events (coxies excluded), excluding the Varsity Eight race.
- Each school is allowed two entries maximum per race, in the Varsity Eight race one entry per school is allowed.
- A novice rower shall be defined as an athlete who is participating in their first year of high school rowing (started after 2023 spring season). Their class status in school shall have no bearing on their novice classification. They may be a freshman, sophomore, junior or senior
- A Junior Varsity oarsperson shall be defined as a student enrolled in 9th, 10th or 11th grade.
- Each student must conform to the eligibility requirements of their respective school, and also the rules and regulations of the MHSAA.
- All students competing in a boat must attend the same high school. Composite crews are not allowed.
- All students competing in a boat must be the same sex of the category of that race. (coxies excluded)
- Heats, if needed will be either 1000 or 1500 meters (based on number of heats). The race course is against the river's current

Weigh-Ins:

Weigh-ins will be conducted on Friday, April 26, 2022 from 5pm until 6pm at the WBC. The scales will be open on Saturday from 7am to 8am. If you make weight on Friday, you do not have to weigh-in on Saturday. Only lightweights need to weigh-in. Students will be allowed one reweigh if within 2 lbs, if they are not at weight.

- Crews must weigh-in together and be accompanied by a coach or school official
- Clerk of the scales will communicate with coach or school official only
- No checking of weight during official weigh-in times
- Women lightweight = 138lb max
- Men lightweight = 150lb max

WBC high school crews are highly encouraged to weigh-in on Friday

The previous review of rules is just a highlight. If you have any questions please ask Mark Milewski, Regatta Chair
